

THUG BEATS WOMAN

A Japanese woman servant was almost beaten to death at 2 o'clock this afternoon by an unknown thug at the residence of Charles Bonner, packer, 1534 Spring street, corner of Cedar, North Berkeley.

Nobody else was home and when the thief was refused he dragged the woman by the hair from the front door to the kitchen, beating her unmercifully over the head with his revolver as he went. The woman was rendered almost unconscious by the blows. Her screams attracted the neighbors, who immediately sent in an alarm for the police. The man escaped, but Chief Vollmer and a squad of police are on his trail. It is supposed that he is headed toward Contra Costa county. The girl will probably die. The entire Berkeley police force has been sent into the Berkeley hills on a hunt for the desperado.

Victim Will Likely Die

WHY THE GRAFT PROSECUTION SUDDENLY CHANGED FRONT

Heney Is Trying to Get Rid of the Immunity Scandal and Protect Lawlor and Dunne--Still Hopes to Use Ruef.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.—Speculation is rife regarding the latest move of the graft prosecution in having Patrick Calhoun, Thew L. Ford and Abraham Ruef indicted on charges of bribery in connection with the trolley franchises. The indictments returned by the Grand Jury involved precisely the same transaction and the same charges, but Thoinwell, Mulhally, William M. Abbott and Eugene D. Schmitz were jointly indicted with Calhoun, Ford and Ruef. Abbott, Mulhally and Schmitz are left out of the new indictment.

Is the new move a confession that the old indictments were defective or not found in accordance with law or has the prosecution provided a way of letting go of Abbott, Mulhally and Schmitz without having them formally exonerated in court as Deputy District Attorney O'Garra did in his argument before the last Ford jury?

Deeper Motive.

Shrewd observers ascribe a deeper and more crafty motive to Spreckels and Heney. They believe the graft prosecutors had three different objects in view. 1. Getting rid of the Ruef immunity contract and the legal tangle in which it has involved the prosecution together with the scandal incident to the scheme to purchase Ruef's testimony with immunity. 2. To relieve the prosecution of the irreconcilable variance between the allegations of the Oliver indictments and the evidence on which they were found. In the most vital particulars the allegations of the Oliver indictments conflict with the testimony relied upon to support them. Withe Ruef's aid this contradiction of proof and allegations could not be eliminated.

To Protect Judges.

3. To protect Judges Lawlor and Dunne from the political consequences of going on the stand and under oath contradicting R. Noble Kaplan and Nieto. Unless they could escape examination in court Lawlor and Dunne would be compelled to admit that Kaplan and Nieto told the truth or brand the two clerical men with wilful perjury. As both Dunne and Lawlor are aspirants for future political honors the alternative was most embarrassing. Moreover a searching cross examination in court would inevitably bring out a mass of collateral facts regarding their dealings and associations which would tend to discredit them and provoke antagonism.

Changed Front.

It is argued that the prosecution could not protect itself without protecting Dunne and Lawlor from an inquisitorial ordeal which would have put them on record in a most embarrassing way. This is at least a plausible explanation of the apparent abandonment of the Oliver indictments to begin a new prosecution not encumbered by the disgraceful immunity deal and the scandalous intrigue to which Dunne and Lawlor were parties.

The prosecution has also completely changed front in the Parkside matter. For nearly a year Heney and Spreckels relied on the testimony of Ruef to convict Gustav Umbsen, J. E. Green and William L. Brobeck of attempting to bribe the Supervisors. Now they propose to use the testimony of those gentlemen

HENEY AFRAID TO PUT CALHOUN ON TRIAL

This, It Is Stated, Is Main Reason for the New Indictment.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.—"Heney is not ready to try Calhoun," say those in the know, "and that's why he has had him re-indicted with Ford and Ruef. This is one of the explanations given for this new move on the part of the prosecution and it is based on the reason that Heney, notwithstanding he had declared his readiness to try the United Railroads president at any time has seemingly never been and is not now prepared to do so. Under the law Calhoun should have been put to trial within 60 days from February 1 last. Calhoun's attorneys have time and again since that date announced their readiness to face a jury, but the prosecution has put them off. Now the 60-day limit expires next Wednesday and, as the prosecution still seems to be afraid to go to trial it has had to get new indictments on the old charge to gain time."

HENY AFRAID TO BE HELD UP AND ROBBED BY 3 GASPIPE THUGS

Belated Wayfarer Receives Bad Treatment

A A Loesche bricklayer, residing at the Hamilton Hotel on San Pablo avenue was held up severely beaten and robbed by three gaspipe thugs at Thirty-seventh street and San Pablo avenue at 1 o'clock this morning, shortly after leaving the Key Route train at Portieth street. Loesche was struck on the head with a piece of gaspipe and knocked to the ground and rendered semi-conscious. The highwaymen then stole his valise, containing two suits of clothes and other apparel and made their escape.

When Loesche fully recovered he stated that after finding one he was advised that after finding one he was advised used to go home and to report the matter at police headquarters in the morning. Loesche visited the receiving hospital this morning and had a severe wound on his head treated. He told the story of the robbery and assault and then visited police headquarters and told of his experience. Loesche says that as he was walking down San Pablo avenue three men called to him to halt and when he did so they set upon him and one struck him a vicious blow on the head with a gaspipe. He fell to the ground and the men took his valise and ran away.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 26.—Senator Burrows, chairman of provisions and elections today made objection to the swearing of Senator-elect Smith, of Maryland, who was chosen to succeed the late Senator Whyte, on the ground that Mr. Smith's election had not been in accordance with the form prescribed by the constitution. There had been a roll call of the Senate just previous to the proceeding and almost all the senators were in their seats.

ANARCHISTS VOW ON COFFIN TO KILL OFFICER

Revenge Planned Because of Arrest of "Red" by Detective Rocca.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.—Increased because their chief Paul Bignami, the so-called king of the local anarchist colony, was taken into custody by Detective John Rocca yesterday four anarchists took oath on a miniature coffin marked with skull and cross bones and the red flag of anarchy that they would have the life of the officer. This quartet is now with their chief in detention at the city prison.

The four men who took the oath are Joseph Tumatti, Charles Anjer, August Nocchi said to have been secretary to Emma Goldman and Charles Dalton. Detective Rocca heard yesterday afternoon that he had been marked for death and Chief of Police Buggy and Captain of Detectives Kelly received secret warning at about the same time. They instructed the officer not to visit the haunts of the men unless he was accompanied by other policemen but Rocca was aroused when he heard of the threat and determined to arrest the quartet and to do it alone.

August Nocchi is the only one of the quartet who is known to have any legitimate employment. He is said to be interested in a cooperative bakery and is charged with responsibility for much of the trouble in the concern. He came here from Chicago about a year ago. Officer Rocca is now engaged in digging into the past history of the others and will be prepared to tell all about them when finally he gets them before the immigration commissioners.

ILLINOIS REPUBLICANS DECLARE THEMSELVES FOR TARIFF REFORM

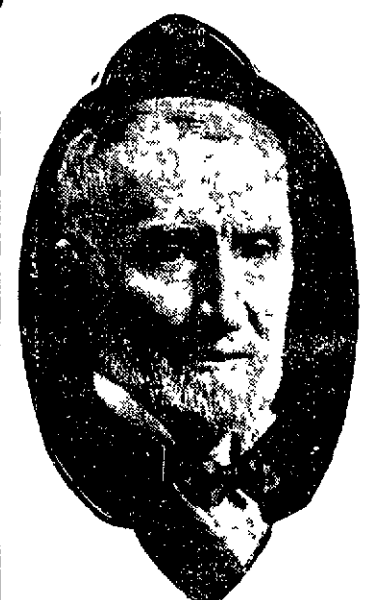

ENDORSE UNCLE JOE CANNON'S CANDIDACY

Instruct Delegates to Vote for Speaker for President.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 26.—At 10 o'clock today the Republican convention which is to send four delegates and alternates at large to the Chicago convention, was called to order by Roy O. West, chairman of the State central committee. George Buckingham of Danville was made temporary chairman and permanent chairman.

The convention was solidly for Joseph O. Cannon for President and endorsed his candidacy in as strong terms as language permitted. It also upheld the administration of Governor Deneen and commended his conduct of public affairs. All other State officers of the party were endorsed, as were United States Senators Cullum and Hopkins. The administration of President Roosevelt was also highly praised.

The tariff plank of the platform was the subject of much discussion and nothing definite was done with it until Chairman Boutell arrived late at night with the last Washington news of the best way in which it should be worded. It was generally believed until just before the convention met that the tariff plank would declare for adjustment, but at the last minute it was after debate stricken out and revision alone was asked. The suggestion was also made that legislative committees of the nation at house and Senate passed immediately to gather a census information looking to such a result.

Applause for Cannon

The first mention of speaker Cannon was in the prayer of Rev. J. M. Francis, who invoked the divine blessing upon him and his cause. He was instantly interrupted by an outburst of applause which put a second halt in his prayer. At the conclusion of the invocation Chairman West introduced the conference of the convention George T. Buckingham of Danville who made a brief address. He paid an elegant tribute to the work and public services of Speaker Cannon in reading to the convention a letter published some months ago written by President Roosevelt in praise of the work of the speaker and this said Mr. Buckingham is what the President

DELEGATES SCOTCHED BY FIRE

Members to Illinois Convention Lose Baggage in Big Hotel Fire.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 26.—Fire that started at noon to last and was practically under control an hour later caused damage estimated at $70,000 to the Le Land Hotel, one of the best known hostels in the country. Most of the delegates attending the Republican convention had rooms at the hotel and nearly all of them lost their baggage.

Most of the delegates were at the convention at the time the fire broke out. So far as known no lives were lost. All of the attendants it is believed made their escape as did those guests who were in the building when the fire broke out.

The fire broke out at 12 o'clock in the upper floor from some unknown cause. A heavy wind was blowing and it was soon evident that the building was doomed. Many of the guests who were outside when the fire started acted like mad men being determined to save their valises even at the expense of their lives. They fought with the policemen at the doors and while one officer was wrenched from the entrance by a mob of people trying to prevent their entering the building a doorman other guests slipped past and dashed into the flooded lobby, darted up stairs and made an effort to save their property, and succeeded in getting out only a small portion of their belongings. All are believed to have gained the street in safety.

The hotel stood on the corner of Sixth street and Capitol avenue and was five stories in height. The building was old and entirely of wood construction and made splendid food for the flames.

GRAND JURY LEAK RILES HENEY

Indignant Prosecutor Refuses to Reveal Findings of Body, but Langdon Tells Nature of True Bills.

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE)
SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.—Irritated over the fact that the findings of the Grand Jury in their session yesterday afternoon had been made public before the prosecution was ready to make them known, J. Heney this morning poured a fourth in President Judge Starr's department of the Superior Court a bitter denunciation of the methods of the San Francisco press.

After stating that the facts contained in the published accounts were erroneous, Heney absolutely refused to make public the contents of the true bills returned by the Grand Jury and presented in court. Judge Starr, however, ordered his clerk to keep them secret until the consent of the District Attorney had been obtained. District Attorney Langdon, however, was at length prevailed upon to give his consent to the making public of the contents of the documents some time after Heney had left the courtroom.

There are three indictments each against Patrick Calhoun, Thew L. Ford and Abraham Ruef in which the defendants are accused of bribing former Supervisors John J. Furey, J. P. Nicholas and Daniel C. Coleman. It is alleged that the three Supervisors received $4,000 each on the 10th day of May 1906 for voting in favor of the overhead trolley franchise to take the pie of the cable roads in this city. The documents are couched in

STANFORD STUDENTS BEGIN EXODUS; STRIKE FEARED

Many Collegians Take Leaves of Absence

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, March 26.—Either a general strike of the student body or an exodus of individuals from the university is considered inevitable here this morning.

The action of the committee on student affairs in suspending forty-one young men on their own voluntary withdrawal and after a sincere apology had been made for the original disturbance has developed a deep conviction even among the most conservative that the university condition is no longer tolerable and a withdrawal of large proportions is expected.

A large number of petitions for leave of absence were filed with the registrar this morning and many more applications were taken out which will be filed in and submitted following. At that gathering plans for concerted student action will be discussed and it is anticipated that the participants will reach a definite conclusion. The sentiment has deepened against the faculty action.

DR. JORDAN RECOVERING FROM SUDDEN ILLNESS

SAN JOSE, March 26.—David Starr Jordan, president of Stanford University who was taken ill yesterday is somewhat improved this morning. He is in bed under a physician's care at the residence of his friend Attorney S. T. Leib, Trustee of the University.

Dr. Jordan yesterday evening started for this city on the train to speak at a public meeting to be held in East San Jose.

On the way up he was taken with severe pains in his stomach and at Santa Clara he left the train and went to the drug store for medicine. He was not relieved, however, and he hastened to Judge Lieb's on the Alameda and immediately went to bed while a physician was summoned. He was in severe pain until about midnight, when he went to sleep.

An examination this morning revealed some inflammation of the appendix, but nothing serious. Dr. Jordan will not return to Stanford this afternoon and his physician states that probably he may have to remain here tomorrow as rest is essential to his rapid recovery.

DENIES ANARCHIST PAPER USE OF MAILS

WASHINGTON, March 26.—Postmaster General Meyer today issued an order annulling the second-class mailing permission granted in 1905 to "Le Question Sociale," an Italian publication issued by an alleged anarchist group at Paterson, N. J. The order was issued because the publication is not a newspaper within the meaning of the law, but is devoted to what the editor terms the "science" of extolling assassination as a virtue.

ILLINOIS REPUBLICANS • DECLARE THEMSELVES FOR TARIFF REVISION

of the United States said the next President of the United States and the delegates went wild.

The speaker concluded his address by declaring that Gladstone was premier at 83 and that Bismarck did his greatest work when he was 80 years of age.

We offer to the country, he said, "a man as wise as Gladstone and brave as Bismarck."

There were no contests. Pending the reports of the committees on permanent organization and resolutions an address was made by Congressman Henry B. Bouteille.

The Platform.

The temporary organization was made permanent and the resolutions committee brought in the following platform, which was adopted with great enthusiasm.

The platform of the Illinois Republicans, in convention assembled on this 26th day of March, 1908, would remind the Republicans of the State and the Nation that fifty-two years ago our great party was founded on principles that are as eternal and as necessary in republican government as are axioms in mathematics.

The Republican party—now composed largely of sturdy men who have come to manhood since the war of the sixties most of that great host of patriots having pitched their tents on a permanent camping ground—pledges that we will ever salute the dead patriot host of all of our wars and will continue to remember in the most substantial manner the soldiers of all our wars who are yet living and also their widows and orphans of the dead knowing that we can never repay their services to the country.

Republican Principles.

Republican principles are as vital in 1908 as they have been in previous years. They must guide us in the future as in the past. In meeting and doing the questions now pending and those which may arise.

We therefore again announce our faith in Republican principles and policies and pledge ourselves to do all in our power to elect the Presidential nominee and all our State Republican nominees on next November 3.

Believing in Republican principles of the past in relation to American labor and American industry in sound money and in the power of Congress to improve the Nation's natural highways of commerce and the equality of all citizens before the law, we do not harbor the Democratic expedient of making new or novel a declaration to attract temporary support to continue Republican administration.

"That we endorse the administration of Roosevelt to its energy and success for recommending to Congress many measures of the greatest benefit to the general welfare and for vigorously enforcing the law on the statute books and dividing to bring about the restoration of the nation, wherein such citizens shall be equal before the law and give equal obedience to the law. His administration will stand as one of the greatest in American history."

Praises Present Tariff Law.

The present tariff law which was passed at the special session of the fifty-fifth congress convened by President McKinley, and which was signed July 24, 1897, by that illustrious president, is amply justified by the promises and hopes of its framers and supporters. It has proven the most scientifically adjusted tariff ever placed on the statute books. Under its beneficent influence abundant revenues have flowed into the national treasury, our commerce has expanded beyond all expectations, the volume of our exports has increased, and the volume of our imports within the past six months it has reached the high water mark. The ratio of our manufactured exports has steadily advanced, our farmers have received the highest prices for their products, and other workers the highest wages that have ever been paid and our citizens of all classes have enjoyed a greater degree of prosperity than has ever prevailed during a like period in any other country.

Tariff at Extra Session.

The long continuance of the benefits conferred by the present tariff has produced an industrial situation that suggests the possibility of securing by the revision of the tariff additional benefits for the people of the United States through a wise continuance of the policy of the protective tariff.

It is now apparent that in order to maintain the scientific accuracy of the tariff remove inequalities and prevent in justice some new results must be added to the law some of the present rates must be lowered while some must be re-established altogether.

The very success of the present tariff demonstrates the wisdom of the policy it is to conform to the improved conditions which it has produced. We believe that the people of the United States will profit by a new tariff but it must be a Republican tariff, a protective tariff, a tariff which declares that the difference between American and foreign wages be difference between the high scale of living of American wage earners and the scale of living imposed by insufficient wages upon foreign workmen.

"We therefore recommend to our delegates to the Republican national convention that they urge upon the convention the wisdom of declaring for revision of the tariff to be made at the next session of Congress or at a special session of the sixty-first congress to be convened immediately after the inauguration of the next President, March 4, 1909."

Indicates Lines of Revision.

"We believe that our tariff should contain provision for minimum and maximum rates, a minimum rates giving full protection the maximum rates to be invoked for retaliating upon foreign countries that discriminate against American products.

We believe that the two main ideas should pervade all the provisions of the tariff.

"FIRST—That the protective principle so prevalent in all the schedules shall be the American farmers, workmen and producers shall be given the first call on the home market, and

"SECOND—That no illegal or unjust combination, trust or monopoly shall find provisions.

"To the end that the revision of the tariff may be accomplished with the greatest possible gain and the least possible loss we suggest to our senators and representatives in congress that they seek to secure at once the passage in their respective houses of resolutions directing the proper committee to proceed immediately to collect the preliminary information necessary for a revision of the tariff that, when the work is entered upon all parties in interest may be heard and the law framed, discussed and passed without delay and without any disturbance of the financial and industrial interests of the country."

Favor Sound

Financial Legislation

We favor sound financial legislation as will give to the country districts the same protection as to the central reserve cities and present the recurrence of financial disturbance and we have confidence in our chosen leaders in congress that proper financial laws will be enacted.

"We approve the vigorous enforcement of the interstate laws against all combinations monopolies and trusts and will support the enforcement of such laws until justice prevails."

"We urge that if the laws now on the statute books are not sufficient to reach every cause of extortion or discrimination additional laws be enacted by congress until no guilty combination of trust escapes."

"That we endorse the Republican members of both branches of congress who have stood firmly by the President and have enacted into law so many measures recommended by him, for the common good, and also have enacted into law many other excellent measures originating in congress. That we heartily endorse our senior senator, Hon. Shelby M. Cullom for his long able and spotless public life and wish him many years of health and peace. We also endorse our junior senator, Albert J. Hopkins, who has given all matters pertaining to the interest of the whole country especially to Illinois "quick and effective attention and has shown himself one of the ablest senators Illinois has sent to the upper house of congress."

The State administration is commended and the platform continues.

The loyalty and ability of Speaker Joe Cannon his efforts for good government for safe business and better conditions of labor and his support of Presidents Grant, Hayes, Garfield, Arthur, Harrison, McKinley and Roosevelt are matters of history. He has advocated voted for and put his impress upon all the laws for public welfare written upon the statute books of the United States for over a third of a century. President Roosevelt himself tells the country how faithfully and efficiently Speaker Cannon has supported him in his great work and no one is more disposed to carry forward those great reforms or better prepared to do so than Speaker Cannon, who always faces the front and moves forward.

And believing that Speaker Cannon is eminently fitted in every way to be the party's national standard bearer in the campaign of 1908 therefore we unhesitatingly induct our delegates and earnestly to the national convention convened in Chicago next June 15 to cast their votes for the Hon. Joseph C. Cannon and to use every honorable means to secure his nomination and we earnestly request our delegates to declare their united influence in support of his candidacy."

Endorsement of Cannon.

The present tariff law which was passed at the special session of the fifty-fifth congress convened by President McKinley, and which was signed July 24, 1897, by that illustrious president, is amply justified by the promises and hopes of its framers and supporters. ACROSS THE FOOTLIGHTS

MARY MARBLE, WITH "DREAM CITY."

DREAM CITY IS TO BE NEXT PLAY

Full of Artists, Good Music, Fine Scenery and Up-to-Date Jokes.

When a Weber production is announced at a playhouse it is always a foregone conclusion that an attraction far from the ordinary is about to hold the boards which is evidently the case in this particular instance when Joe Weber's latest and most pretentious effort, "Dream City," comes to the Macdonough Friday and Saturday March 27 and 28.

"Dream City" is from the pen of that clever and versatile author and librettist Edgar Smith, while the music is considered to be Victor Herbert's master work.

The production on tour this season is the one intact that ran all last season at the Weber Theater, New York City and embraces the same gorgeous scenic and stage effects elaborate and dazzling costumes to say nothing of the famous chorus of Weber beauties.

As the funny and eccentric German comedian who is lured into a dream of the greatness and future of his Long Island farm through the volubility of a smooth-tongued real estate agent, Mr. Weber has been more than fortunate in finding a counterpart and worthy successor in that clever and intangible comedian Little Chip. Little Chip's work and versatility in "The Babes of Toyland," Woodland and other big productions is too well known to need further comment save to say that in "Dream City" he has succeeded in making the hit of his career.

JAMMED

Never in the history of the city of Oakland did so many people gather into one store as they did yesterday at the opening of the great Closing-Out Sale of the different departments at ABRAHAMSON BROS., S. E. CORNER 13TH AND WASHINGTON STS.

Thousands of people flocked to this most colossal sale eager to reap the benefits of this great slaughter, and with the greatest difficulty were we able to handle, the crowds who jammed and pushed through the dense throngs to reach the different departments. If we would have had a thousand floor managers the crowds could not have been handled better. Everybody good humored and perfectly satisfied with the surroundings and especially the Bona Fide Bargains throughout the building. But, remember, everything in these departments, viz: Gents' Furnishing, Cotton and Domestic Goods, Dress Goods, Curtains, Blankets, Bed Spreads, Comforters, Draperies and Bazaar Departments are doomed to go in 10 days, and every price cut unmercifully to accomplish our aim. Tomorrow (Friday) morning will witness another day of unparalleled offerings never before equaled by any store in the West. Extra force engaged to handle the multitude.

We beg to apologize to the public for not giving the customers the attention they deserved yesterday, our opening day. Yet we did the best we could under the circumstances. Tomorrow we'll be prepared to handle the masses, no matter how large the crowds. An additional force of efficient help will be here to wait on you. If prices are an object to the people we have the goods—highest in quality only. Ten days of unmerciful slaughtering in all departments. Extra inducements TOMORROW from basement to garret.

DIAMOND RING AND $15 STOLEN

Berkeley Claims Pockets Were Picked by Stranger Who Gave Him Beer.

John Farrar of 2205 McKinley avenue, Berkeley, reported to the Oakland police this morning that he had been robbed in the saloon of A. Perez, Marshall and Stanford avenues, by a man known as "Clancy" of four twenty-dollar gold pieces, seven dimes, a diamond ring and a gold pin, the rings having been wrapped in a tobacco pouch.

Farrar reports that he met Clancy in the saloon and had several drinks with him. Farrar then purchased six bottles of beer and was assisted by Clancy in putting one of the bottles in his pocket. Farrar claims that Clancy gave all of his attention to the beer, instead of the money and the tobacco pouch which contained the rings. Both the police of Berkeley and Oakland are in search of Clancy.

IS REARRESTED ON OLD INDICTMENT

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.—Paul G. Bender, an engineer, was arrested in this city today under an indictment in Marion county, Ill., charging him with failure to provide for a minor child. Bender shows receipts for $400 which he had paid for his wife's support, and states that this is a job to get him back East.

He says that he and his wife came here, but that she did not like it and returned. Now, he claims, they want him to go back there and work and so have trumped up a charge against him.

STEVENS, VICTIM OF ASSASSIN'S BULLETS

2 MEN WHO SHOT DIPLOMAT FACE GALLOWS

Surgeons Allowed Him to Lie 56 Hours With Two Bullets Before Operating.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.—Durham White Stevens, diplomatic adviser to the Korean Council of State, died last night at 11 o'clock in St. Francis Hospital, as the result of bullet wounds inflicted by In Whan Chang, a Korean, last Monday morning.

Chang and Chun, his accomplice, both of whom are in jail, will be charged with having murdered Stevens.

When informed last night of his victim's death, Chang said, "I am glad. I shot Stevens because he sold Korea out to Japan. He was no friend of Korea, and he is better dead."

Chun, who was wounded by a wild shot from his companion's revolver, is at the Lane Hospital, where it was said last night that he was apparently on the road to recovery.

Both men have assumed the responsibility for their act by declarations made since the shooting.

Friends of Stevens were horrified to learn that the physicians in the case actually allowed him to lie from the time he was shot last Monday morning until 6 o'clock last night, making over three whole days without operating.

An X-ray examination was not even made until yesterday afternoon, when the doctors finally realized that Stevens was in a dangerous condition.

After Stevens had been allowed to go over fifty-six hours without even probing for the bullets, the physicians at last awoke to the fact that symptoms of inflammation of the peritoneum were clearly manifest. All of this time the doctors had been giving out bulletins to the press stating positively that Stevens would recover. Yesterday morning the physicians stated that Stevens was out of danger.

Six Holes in Intestines.

In the afternoon the symptoms of peritonitis were aggravated, and Japanese Consul General Chozo Koke hastily called Drs. W. C. Perry, T. W. Huntington and Zumwalt into consultation.

At 6 o'clock Stevens was taken to the operating room and placed under an anesthetic. On opening the abdominal cavity the surgeons discovered that the intestines had been perforated in six different places by one of the shots fired by Chang, and that the patient had no chance for recovery.

No attempt was made to probe for the other bullet, which had entered the upper part of the body, piercing the right lung.

Only once during the evening did Stevens show signs of returning consciousness, when, in answer to a question by one of the doctors, he said that he was in pain. Then he relaxed and lay quietly until the end came at a little after 11 o'clock.

Stevens leaves two sisters, one of whom, it is understood, is on her way with her brother-in-law to this city. They live in Atlantic City, and a telegram was sent there last night informing them of the death.

BUTCHERS PAYING MORE FOR MEAT

Raise Due to Few Cattle Being Shipped, Declare Meat Dealers.

Butchers in Oakland are paying more for cattle now than they have for some time past. Beef has raised from three-fourths to one cent per pound, while wholesalers demand one and a half cents more for sheep. The meat market proprietors all say, however, that they are retailing at the same regular prices.

Burt Becker of the Grand Central Meat Market thinks that the raise is only temporary and meat will come down soon. The present condition, in the opinion of Lesser Brothers, proprietors of the Washington Market, is due to the scarcity of cattle and not to any agreement between wholesalers.

Cattle owners are not shipping, they say. Storms in the Northern States and the cold weather in the cattle raising districts they also think are responsible for the present amount of cattle shipping. Every year thousands of head of cattle die in the Montana, Wyoming and Dakota storms.

POLICE COMMISSIONERS TO DECIDE PATROLMEN'S FATE

Hugo Keil Will Be Witness Against Accused Officers.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.—A most peculiar situation will be seen at the meeting of the board of police commissioners which is to decide upon the fate of Policemen Ewart, Behan, Sullivan and Sergeant Nolting this evening.

In the case of the two former, Commissioner Hugo Keil will not take his place upon the bench, but will be one of the chief witnesses for the prosecution, it being alleged that he saw the money passed and was present when it was found on the accused officers.

This leaves Commissioners Cutler, Leggett and Swigert on the bench. The latter is supposed to take the side of the officers in the controversy and a lively session is predicted.

The only charge against Sullivan is that of conducting an officer in striking Samuelson, the chief witness of the prosecution, when the latter pointed him out and accused him of extortion.

IS STRUCK BY LOCAL WHILE CROSSING TRACK

Patrick Mahoney, whose home is in West Oakland, was struck and seriously injured last night, shortly after eight o'clock, by the Seventh street local, as he was crossing the tracks at Union street. Mahoney was taken to the Receiving Hospital last night, but was almost upon him. Mahoney sustained internal injuries and cuts on the scalp and left thigh.

Engineer Dave Collier states that he did not see Mahoney until the engine was almost upon him. Mahoney sustained internal injuries and cuts on the scalp and left thigh.

ing them of their brother's death.

Consul General Koke sent telegrams to the Japanese government, telling of the death of Stevens.

Booked for Murder.

I. Won Chang and Ming Wong Chun, the Koreans who shot Stevens, were today charged with murder by Detective Sergeant Connelley of the Harbor station, acting under the order of Captain of Detectives Kelly.

Chang, the man who fired all the shots, was taken from his cell at 10 o'clock this morning and formally booked. He gave his occupation as a porter and his age as 30 years. Chun, his co-conspirator, still lies in a somewhat critical condition at Lane Hospital, but his name was placed below that of his companion and his occupation is given as a farmer.

Investigating Koreans.

Captain of Detectives Kelly has sent out numbers of men to investigate the Koreans in this city. This was done as the result of a communication from Los Angeles, calling attention to the fact that the Koreans there have raised a fund for the defense of the conspirators. It is thought that, if the Korean colony here should become worked up over the affair further bloodshed might result and the police desire to get all the information possible regarding the conditions.

Captain Kelly has just finished an investigation regarding the part of Japanese residents who are suspected of being anarchists. He acted on information received from Victoria, B. C., to the effect that the Japanese Exclusion League promised to stir up the stay of the fleet here. He finds that there is no trouble among the Japanese themselves and that the leaguers intend to take no drastic measures.

Return Indictments.

Fourteen members of the Grand Jury were present when the proceedings began and Foreman McFarland immediately handed four documents to the court.

Henry thereupon announced that the indictments were really duplicates of ones already found and suggested they be signed by the same department in which they were previously on the calendar. The court replied that it was not ready to assign them at the present time. Judge Sturtevant said that there were several matters he would like to consider in connection with the assignment.

Henry responded that as the witnesses were the same in these, as in other indictments, it would be a great convenience to the District Attorney to have them on trial in the same department.

Warns Grand Jurors.

Judge Sturtevant stated that he would assign the cases either this afternoon or tomorrow morning. He then charged the Grand Jury in the morning papers of the finding of some indictments and that he thought some jurors must have disclosed what took place in the jury room. He warned them that this was contrary to their oaths as jurors and told them that they must keep secret the proceedings that were held before them.

Henry thereupon said:

"I am very glad that your honor has called attention to the reports in the newspapers. I feel sure that they did not get their information from your office. It is proper for the newspapers to get evidence, but not to commit robbery in the getting of it."

"It is not proper to try to influence witnesses and condemn the prosecution in the witness room, as was done yesterday."

Not Before Court.

Henry was interrupted at this point by a statement from the court to the effect that he could not take up such matters and had intended only to speak to the jury about their duty in keeping secret the matters brought before them.

The jury was thereupon excused and Assistant District Attorney Harrison asked that bench warrants be issued in the case of an indictment found by the Grand Jury in connection with some junk matters, concerning which no information would be given out by the District Attorney's office.

Keep Contents Secret.

Attorneys William M. Abbott, Lewis F. Byington and A. J. Moore, the last named chief counsel for Patrick Curtin, went into court during the morning and made an effort to find out the contents of the indictments returned against the railroad officials, but were unsuccessful.

A notable incident in connection with the finding of the indictment in the case of E. P. Nicholas is the fact that former Supervisor was not a witness before the Grand Jury.

WIFE RUNS STAGE AND BUSINESS FOR WALTON

Pretty Woman Handles All Details of Remarkable Show by Pantomimist.

A pretty woman is the power behind the throne in the clever pantomime show which Fred Walton is giving these nights at the Orpheum and—wonders of wonders—the pretty woman is perfectly content to be hid from the audience, tucked away behind the scenes, where her word is law while the big Walton pantomime show is on.

Mrs. Reba Harrison Walton is her name. She is who directs all the stage business in "Cissie's Dream," and she it is who makes it her business to see that every detail in that interesting production is attended to.

Fred Walton is known as the greatest pantomimist in the world—so great an artist that the Orpheum company is content to break well into $1000 each week in consideration of his services received.

Walton's art. They take joy in his finished production, "Cissie's Dream." They note how all the wealth of detail is perfectly worked out. What they do not know is Mrs. Walton.

Wife Conducts Show.

Now, Fred Walton probably is not averse to fame, but also he is not averse to letting it be known that a clever young woman, his wife, is responsible for the smoothness with which his pantomime show is operated.

She directs all things on the stage, so far as "Cissie's Dream" is concerned, and then a little bit more. It is her hand that presses the buttons and gives the cue to scene shifter and electrician, firm and orchestra leader, stage men all.

The lights are lowered and raised at her word. The scenery is moved and set up as she dictates. She is the actual manager of the company.

Knows Her Business.

Now, if anybody conjures up a vision of stern, Spartan generalship, after reading the above description of Mrs. Walton, let him be undeceived. Mrs. Walton is all feminine. She is soft spoken, and her tones are silken, but stage hands do her bidding, for she knows her business, and stage hands reverse anybody who comes in that category, and they reverse no others.

Fred Walton is able to sleep peacefully at night, and to have an untroubled mind by day, because all of the petty business of that great sea of vandals is handled by the woman of it. Mrs. Walton.

That is her domain. She engages actors, pays salaries, attends to railroad matters, looks after stage settings, puts the performance through its paces, and is the impresario of the Walton menage.

And then, to make it all complete and properly feminine she is wont to declare that "everything of importance must be referred to Mr. Walton"—even to the matter of permitting her picture to be printed.

Which, after all, is just about the woman of it. H. A. H.

MRS. REBA HARRISON WALTON

The Columbia

A large audience last night saw a beautiful production of that old-time favorite drama, "Hazel Kirke" at this theater. It was a fine performance throughout and thoroughly enjoyed by all. The version is a new one, rearranged by Mr. Steine, who has out of a great deal of unnecessary dialogue which made the old version of this popular play a little tedious at times. Miss Virginia Thornton in the title role gave one of the best performances since she has been at the third and her acting in the third act is particularly worthy of mention. Al Hallett as Dunstan Kirke was at his best. Mr. Steine, of course, furnished the comedy as Pittacus Green and kept his audience well supplied with laughs. All the other members of the clever company did exceptionally fine work and the production generally is about the best since "In Old Virginia" and "The Cowboy Sheriff." An added feature to last night's performance was the singing of Master Alfred Neuberger, a bright little youngster who has a voice that reminds one forcibly of the famous Dick Jose. "Hazel Kirke" will run all this week and should be well attended. Next week the management announces the special engagement of Irvin Blunkin in "The Lighthouse Robbery." Mr. Blunkin will be supported by Max Steine and the regular Columbia Stock Co.

Arresting Anarchists: Chicago—Three boys who were distributing circulars announcing an anarchist meeting to-morrow evening were arrested by the police in the ghetto last night. The bills advertised that William Nathanson would speak. They also said that Knute Hanson would speak on "Hunger."

CHANGE SANITARY LAW TO SECURE GARBAGE DUMP

Town Trustees Steal March on Citizens Who Are Fighting Scavengers.

BERKELEY March 26.—Worst case yesterday in the fight for a garbage dump on the land leased from former Postmaster George Schmidt through the action of the city council, which has protection from the police under the sanitary ordinance the town trustees in secret session last night turned a trick which they believe will give them the advantage. A resolution was adopted repealing the ordinance which provides that no garbage shall be dumped within 500 yards of a residence.

After two days the proposed law will become operative and the scavengers will be again sent to the Schmidt dump and if interfered with the authorities will call upon the police to arrest the assailants.

The moment this news was conveyed to the west end of the morning there was another assembly of the people and steps were taken to seek an injunction to restrain the trustees and the police from carrying out this program.

Mrs. M. J. Dowling, secretary of the maintaining committee, was appointed treasurer of a fund to be collected during the day to defray the cost of an appeal to the courts. The residents also undertook to provide an armed patrol for the whole neighborhood around Corbin station and they declare that if the scavengers attempt to enter the Schmidt land from that quarter they will be shot.

Charges Betrayal.

"It's up to us to protect ourselves," said Mrs. Dowling. "We are satisfied that we have been betrayed. The trustees never for a moment contemplated removing the dumping ground from this section in their desire to put through a job and give George Schmidt a fancy price for worthless idle land the west end is to be sacrificed."

Mrs. Frank Connor, one of the directors of the West End Protective Association, said that if necessary the women themselves will take the guns.

"We have our children here. The garbage dumped here two weeks ago on Bill Schmidt's land has not been buried as the trustees promised," said Mrs. Connor. "The women and the children will guard those roads from the ingress of the scavengers while our men fight as they are away at work."

Threats Against Scavengers.

William and Frank Moore live in a house just over the two line in the west end. The west end of the house almost adjoins the new dumping ground.

"Just let the scavengers attempt to do what they did yesterday," said Frank Moore, "and you will see that something more than talk and stone throwing will happen. We won't stand for such an outrage."

Others who expressed the same sentiments this morning are R. J. Burcher, Mrs. Green, Mrs. G. Fuller, Mrs. Maxwell, Mrs. Holland, Mrs. D. Edgeridge, Mrs. L. Voulasant, Theodore Fausch, Mrs. G. Malm, Mrs. A. Ramsey, Mrs. J. A. Colne, Mrs. Koch, Mrs. Kate Connor, Mrs. M. J. Sexton and Mrs. Jorky.

The trustees say that they will carry out the plans they have under way notwithstanding threats. They will pass the trouble up to the police department.

Joseph Breen, head of the scavengers said this morning:

"We will dump on the Schmidt property not later than Monday morning under police protection. The trustees have selected this as a dumping site and we will obey their instructions."

Former Postmaster George Schmidt says that the land has been leased to the town and he is no longer interested. "I believe however that after two days the scavengers will dump on my property. That is the arrangement reached this morning."

Until the changed law becomes effective there will be no garbage collected in Berkeley, according to the announcement at the health board headquarters.

Hinders Rat Crusade.

"This is a very serious matter and is hampering our efforts at cleaning up and killing rats," said Dr. J. F. Howe, assistant to Dr. J. D. Long, in charge of the sanitary campaign.

The scavengers dumped the six loads of refuse they sought to carry to the Schmidt property yesterday morning late last night in the old "bonavard" under cover of darkness. The wagons stood for six hours at the Corbin station. At times the scavengers were surrounded by women and children numbering over 200. Both sides sent a hurried call for the police. When the officers sought to interfere in favor of the garbage men, Mrs. M. J. Dowling pulled a copy of the sanitary law, which provides that a dump must be 500 yards from a residence. The police then changed sides and threatened to arrest the scavengers.

MOVES CALIFORNIA BANK TO OAKLAND BANK BLOCK

Receiver Edoff Will Save Rent for Depositors.

T. P. Edoff, receiver of the California Bank, has abandoned the idea of moving the bank to the corner of Washington and Twelfth streets to the northwest corner of East Fourteenth street and Twenty-third avenue where the institution owns a two-story stone building. He has leased the latter structure at a fair rate at which he is applying to discharge the claims held by his depositors against the crippled bank.

He proposes, instead, to move the California Bank to rooms on the second floor of the new building of the Oakland Bank of Savings at the northeast corner of Broadway and Twelfth streets. The rooms are not ready for occupancy but will be available as soon as the workmen have put them in a habitable condition.

Edoff has concluded that this location will be appreciated by depositors as being more convenient than quarters would be in the other extremity of the city.

ORIGINAL OF MARTINEZ COLLEGE POSTER STOLEN

Copies Disappear as Fast as Put Up

BERKELEY March 26.—The University is stirred up over a series of petty larcenies connected with the poster drawn by Xavier Martinez, the artist for the coming production of "The Winters' Tale" under the auspices of the English club. Not only has the original drawing been stolen from its place in the office of Porter Garnet, University dramatic coach, but the reproductions which were posted all about Berkeley have almost all disappeared.

Around California held six of the posters disappeared yesterday.

For many years it has been the custom to slash valuable posters before displaying them on the campus to protect them against the depredations of petty larcenists.

What makes the incident more interesting is the fact that the poster in the college daily, the Californian, that the posters are behind some of the thefts. The Californian discussing the appearance of the posters says:

A coded was overheard to say, yesterday, by a member of the committee that a cut up poster was far more desirable if it had been "taken" than a perfect one which had been obtained honestly. She went farther than this and asserted that if she could not obtain a good slashed poster she would buy one and cut it up.

ARRESTED FOR NOT HAVING A LICENSE

ALAMEDA, March 26.—Carl Richter who conducts the American Hotel at Alameda Point is once more in trouble with the authorities. He was arrested yesterday afternoon on a charge of having sold liquor without a license.

Richter was taken into custody some months ago on a like charge. He was found guilty and fined $50. He declared during his trial that he had purchased the American Hotel from Peter Flexel and that the seller had represented to him that the hotelery had a license to dispense alcoholic drinks when it had none.

As a consequence of the alleged deception Richter caused the arrest of Flexel for obtaining money under false pretenses. The case was dismissed when it reached the Superior Court. Richter is a veteran of the Boer war.

BERKELEY March 26.—Struck in the left eye by a flying missile from the slingshot of an unknown boy among the crowd gathered to witness a baseball game in Berkeley, Miss Bessie Dryer, the 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Dryer of 1613 Bonta avenue, is in imminent danger of losing her eyesight altogether while there is virtually no possibility that she will ever have the use of both eyes again.

The affair happened on Tuesday afternoon when a large crowd gathered to watch the game being played on the diamond at the corner of Grove and Rose streets between the boys of the Whittier and Lincoln grammar schools.

Miss Dryer was standing with a friend, when suddenly she was heard to cry out, and her friend saw her bury her face in her hands. She was immediately taken to her home where she received medical attendance.

AUDIENCE LEAVES ROOM HOWISON TALKS TO SEATS

Listeners Show Disapproval of Action

BERKELEY March 26.—While Professor George Howison was talking before the Philosophical Union last evening nearly his whole audience arose in a mass and whisked themselves from the room. They took this means of showing their disapproval of his action in interrupting the lecture of a famous European scholar a few minutes before.

Berkeley clubmen and college society are shocked at what happened. All over the hill region the news is traveling about today that grave discourtesy has been shown a famous visiting scholar and no less a man than the head of the philosophy department is the singer Dr. Howison was still talking when there were only empty chairs and if he heard all the unpleasant things whispered about him he must have had unpleasant sleep.

Prof. Wincent Lutowski was the speaker last night before the Philosophical Union on the results of his study of Plato. Prof. Lutowski is the Kaiser William scholar in the United States this year a member of the faculty of the university of Cracow and considered the real thing in scholarly circles. In an analysis of the distinction between philosophy and religion the famous European visitor told on some of the pet theories of Prof. Howison and the Berkeleyan deliberately rose to his feet. Dr. Howison once started, was soon oblivious of the breach of courtesy and deep in the waters of speculative logic. There was nothing for the scholar from Germany to do but sit down. The Berkeleyan man talked forgetful of everything and everybody else for nearly an hour. It was the abrupt departure of the people that brought him to a sudden stop. Neither Professor Howison or Professor Lutowski will discuss the incident.

THIS IS CIRCUS DAY AND IT IS ALL WORTH WHILE

Norris & Rowe Show Bigger Than Ever

Today is circus day. The greater Norris and Rowe circus, museum, menagerie, hippodrome and congress of nations is filling a two days' engagement at the corner of San Pablo avenue and thirty-third street.

It is doubtful if there is a man, woman or child in Oakland that is not familiar with the names of Norris and Rowe.

For a number of years these young men had their winter quarters in this city, using the old exposition building, which was located on the site of the present market. During this time their relations with the business men of the city were most pleasant. As the show increased in size they were compelled to seek new quarters, and Santa Cruz is now the winter home of the show.

The growth of the Norris and Rowe circus has been rapid. It is now one of the largest in the world. When the circus first was formed the past year, the promoters of the plan reckoned on the strength of Norris and Rowe and invited them to participate in the undertaking, which they did. By this union with the other members of the combine—Ringling Bros. and the Barnum and Bailey circus, Norris and Rowe are enabled to present the very latest and best of the European novelties. R. H. Dockrill, last season's equestrian director of the Barnum and Bailey circus, was transferred to the Norris and Rowe shows and he brought with him dozens of the best acts in the circus world.

The question of giving street parades was taken up and at the last moment it was decided to give them by all the circuses in the combine—but it was not decided upon until very late and the new circus was selected by the executive officers of the trust for the Norris and Rowe shows have been late in arriving. The street parade given this morning was good but inside of ten days Norris and Rowe will have a street demonstration on a par with the Ringling Bros.

The large tents were filled at the afternoon performance today. Performances will be given tonight and tomorrow afternoon and night.

the meeting of tomorrow are Mrs. C. R. Brown, Mrs. Alma Kower, Mrs. Thomas Hogan, Mrs. Edward Booth, Mrs. S. P. Hall, Mrs. Oscar Luning, Mrs. Charles Chambers, Mrs. Harry East Miller, Mrs. J. W. McClymonds, Mrs. Charles E. Solomon, Mrs. C. A. Ains, Mrs. J. P. Ames, Mrs. C. W. Bunnell, Dr. Sarah Shurey, Miss Connors, Miss Caroline Jackson, Mrs. Charles Mau, Mrs. R. H. Chamberlain, Mrs. Cora Jones, Miss Milton, Mrs. M. H. Coffee, Mrs. Max Martens, and many others. Any woman interested in the work is cordially invited to attend the meeting tomorrow afternoon in Ebell Hall at 3:30.

BUTCHERS' EXCHANGE REPLIES TO AN ERRONEOUS STATEMENT

THE BUTCHERS' EXCHANGE desires to correct the erroneous statement which has recently been given out about it to the press, and, among other things, that it has agreed to disband.

It is not true that it has agreed to disband or that it contemplates agreeing to do so; nor is it true that the District Attorney or the Grand Jury have asked it to disband or attempted to require it to do so; nor does it admit that it is or has been violating the Cartwright law or any other law.

The Butchers' Exchange exists for principle and is and always has been a lawful organization, of law-abiding citizens and taxpayers who are engaged in conducting a lawful business in a lawful manner. It has no doubt that its existence and work have resulted in a distinct and considerable advantage to its members and the public and of serious harm to its enemies.

It has sought and will continue to seek to preserve and protect by all lawful ways and means what it believes to be the rights of itself and its members, and will continue to vigorously fight its enemies by every fair and lawful means.

When any other course is decided upon the public will be notified from the headquarters of the organization. Dated, March 26, 1908. BUTCHERS' EXCHANGE OF OAKLAND.

SAY W. P. WILL BE COMPLETED BY NEXT FALL

To Install Two Big Ferries Between Oakland and San Francisco.

The Western Pacific railroad will complete the final link in the Gould system, uniting it with its Western extremity, before Fall, according to the officials of the company.

Bids have been advertised, calling for two ferries to ply between the Oakland terminal of the Western Pacific and San Francisco. These ferries will be larger than those of the Key Route, though built on the same lines.

The company expects to begin the operation of its ferries as soon as the California end of the road is laid, regardless of the completion of the line through the State of Nevada, where a tunnel of more than a mile in length, known as the Flower Lake tunnel, remains to be dug, and will delay the completion of the road for a year.

A tunnel nearly a mile in length near Niles, in this county, is nearly finished, daylight now showing through the bore.

Western Pacific officials further state that 80 per cent of the new mole has been built, although a little of it shows

Prepared by Wife, Who Thought That They Were Mushrooms.

Eating of toadstools, thinking they were mushrooms, caused the death yesterday of Fred J. Marsh, a barber, living at 517 East Twelfth street.

He ate the toadstools at his home on Tuesday evening, they having been cooked by his wife. They were both taken ill a few hours after and a physician was called. Marsh grew steadily worse and was removed to Providence Hospital, dying a little later. His wife will recover.

The War on Roosevelt Declared.

The declaration of the Springfield convention for Speaker Cannon as the Republican Presidential candidate is the answer of the standpatters to President Roosevelt's tariff revision message. It is the announcement of a determination on the part of the nomination at all hazards. It means that there will be a coalition of the Cannon, Hughes, Fairbanks and Knox forces against the administration candidate, and presages a tremendous struggle to overthrow Roosevelt and his influence in the Republican party.

The fierce fighting in the Tennessee Republican convention is merely an evidence of the bitterness and desperation with which the combat will be waged from now on. There will be numerous contesting delegations from the Southern States, which will give the influence controlling the organization of the Chicago convention great power in deciding the nomination. There will in all probability be a recurrence of the fierce and bitter factional disputes that marred Republican harmony in the Garfield and Blaine campaigns, and which gave Cleveland the Presidency in 1884.

The prospect is not pleasant for Republicans devoted to their party and its principles. We cannot help thinking much of the acrimony now being displayed in the Republican ranks is unnecessary and easily avoidable. Beyond question Secretary Taft is the party choice as against any one of the candidates opposed to him, but all the other candidates are massing their forces against him and resorting to tactics which obscure the real nature of the contest in the clamor of factional disturbance. They fight Taft under one banner in one place and under another banner in another place, the object being to elect delegates who will vote against the Ohio man.

The fight against Taft is a fight against Roosevelt. It is predicated openly on the proposition that Secretary Taft is disqualified, not because he is lacking in character, attainments, administrative ability and devotion to Republican principles, but because he is favored by President Roosevelt and is in a sense the residuary legatee of his policies and popularity. Taft's defeat, therefore, will be a defeat for Roosevelt and a reaction in national politics. It will divide and discourage the progressive forces of the nation and give color to the charge that the party has turned its back on signal reforms at the bidding of organized capital.

The Koreans who assassinated Durham W. Stevens, American adviser to the Korean Council of State, professed to be Christians. The assassination was planned in a Christian mission. However, James D. Phelan gave them an encouraging example when he stood up in an Alameda church and advocated shooting the manager of THE TRIBUNE down on his own doorstep. The Koreans simply put in practice the teachings of Mr. Phelan, the only difference being that they were inspired by a patriotic motive, while Phelan's was purely personal.

Bryan Overwhelms His Opponents.

The action of the Illinois Democratic committee removes the last lingering doubt of Bryan's nomination by the Bourbon national convention. It is notice that Illinois will not join the New York Democrats in an attempt to name a new man less radical in his views. Evidently Roger Sullivan has decided not to oppose the Nebraskan or raise an issue that will split the party.

Indiana and South Dakota have landed square in the Bryan column. Tom Taggart, the Hoosier boss who managed the inglorious campaign of Alton G. Parker four years ago, led the Bryan procession, abandoning the plutocratic conservatives and the Tammanyites of Gotham. From now on the Bryan movement, so far as nomination is concerned, will be a series of ratification meetings, culminating in the grand demonstration at Denver.

One by one the opponents of Bryan have been silenced or convinced by the logic of events and the unmistakable evidences given that the Nebraska orator is still the idol of the party masses. The New York World and Times, the Philadelphia Record and two or three Southern journals like the Richmond Times-Dispatch and the Nashville American continue to rail at Bryan's candidacy and doctrines, but the Louisville Courier-Journal has come into camp, acknowledging that Bryan's nomination is inevitable and pledging him its support. Colonel Watterson fought long and hard, but political wisdom has not entirely deserted him. Kentucky and the Democratic party are for Bryan, and the Courier-Journal is forced to follow the band wagon. Johnson of Minnesota is abandoned but not forgotten by the great Blue Grass editor. A few of the Eastern Democratic journals dominated by plutocratic influences will probably continue their fight on Bryan till the close of the campaign, but their opposition has been discounted in advance and will avail little in the present political posture.

While all things are possible in a popular election, the election of Bryan seems entirely improbable. He would have a fair chance against Fairbanks and more than an even break with Knox, but it is conceded that he would have no show against Roosevelt. The probabilities are all against him in case either Taft, Cannon or Hughes be the Republican candidate. Either of these men can carry New York, New England and the tier of great middle States lying between the Atlantic and the Missouri river, north of the Ohio. This group of States alone can elect the President. What hope has Bryan in any of them? Bryan has simply elected to lead a forlorn hope rather than relinquish his hold upon the Democratic party.

The Koreans who assassinated D. W. Stevens should be promptly tried and hanged. Their coadjutors and abettors should be sent to State prison or deported. This crime was committed in a public place; the men who committed it have been identified and arrested, and acknowledge their guilt. The murder was wanton and premeditated, the pretext being a political quarrel in another country. Patriotism is neither a legal nor a moral excuse for such atrocities, which are becoming all too common throughout the world. Free and orderly government cannot survive if private assassination be permitted on the score of patriotic motive. The editors of the Korean paper printed in San Francisco, which rejoiced at the murder of Stevens and glorified his assassins, should be sent out of the country as dangerous and undesirable persons. They are not essentially different from the European anarchists who are attempting to plant their bloody and destructive doctrines on these shores, and should be given the same treatment accorded those human wolves.

American Hostess Entertains King of England

NEW YORK, March 26.—Mrs. Porter Palmer's previous efforts to outshine other American hostesses abroad have been as water unto wine compared to her present extravagant plans for a social campaign, says Town Topics. By taking the famous Villa Strepardie near Biarritz she is already ahead of two formidable rivals, the Dowager Duchess of Manchester and Mrs. Harold Baring, formerly Miss Marie Churchill of New York, who are ensconced there, ready to entertain King Edward. Mrs. Palmer is refurbishing the villa in Louis XVI style. She has secured a caterer, who takes with him his own staff of assistants, and everything will be in readiness when His Majesty arrives. He will be preceded by Mrs. Palmer and Prince and Princess Cantacuzene. During the London season Mrs. Palmer will be installed in Hampden House again.

Leaps to Stage and Dances 'Cancan'

WILMINGTON, Del., March 26.—Unnounced and unexpected, an inmate of the State Hospital for the Insane, at Farnhurst, made her appearance on the stage of the Garrick Theater recently in an impromptu "act." Mrs. Collins, matron of the hospital, escorted six women patients to witness the matinee performance, and all of them were orderly until the orchestra struck up a lively tune as the curtain ascended for the "act" of a dancing team, when one of them suddenly bounded from her seat and raced down the aisle.

Windy Girls Must Wear Corsets Without Pink Ribbons

NEW YORK, March 26.—"So Miss Skinner of Boston says the co-eds of Chicago dress like a lot of harlequins, does she?" said a fashionable dress-maker recently. "And the college girls are to be taught to wear simple things, are they? Well, they'll be college widows if they follow that instruction." "Take it from me, with my experience of thirty years in telling the Four Hundred how to dress, I have come to the safe and sane conclusion that it is better to look like a harlequin than a demitasse. Now, I don't think the Chicago University co-eds are so much infatuated with the suffragette idea as to doff the things that adorn while they are still in college."

The talented young reader, Miss Ida Bradley, favored the club with two readings, "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" and "Doll's Wedding" (Eugene Field).

DYING WIFE SAYS 'TAKE CARE OF MY TOM (CAT)'

NEW YORK, March 26.—Possessed of a hallucination that she and her husband were to be separated by another woman to whom he was about to give his love, Mrs. Eva H. Doppel committed suicide early the other morning when her husband was at work. She dressed herself in her best life she wrote three letters to her husband and lay down under a tube hanging from a gas jet. Before ending her life she wrote three letters to her husband, all breathing of love and despair and the fear that she was mad. The woman suffered from nervous prostration and her relatives believe her ailment caused her mental condition. Here are some of the sentences she wrote: "I have to say good-by, but, first of all, God bless you, and may your ever be happy. I have suffered enough. The whole world seems against me. Be good to my dear Tom (the cat). Keep him for company. When you marry again, pick out some nice, sweet girl without a past."

San Mateo Girl MARRIES MAN She Saw ONCE

PITTSBURG, March 26.—A romance covering a period of several months, in which a girl was wooed and won at a distance of nearly 300 miles, resulting in a marriage not long ago in Buffalo, N. Y., when the young persons met for the first time. Miss Gertrude P. Russell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Russell, of San Mateo, Cal., was the bride, and John G. Kirkpatrick of Verona, Pa., was the bridegroom. Mr. Kirkpatrick became acquainted with Miss Russell through a matrimonial bureau. Both the tale of the marriage became more serious and finally Buffalo was chosen as the place for the wedding. Mr. Kirkpatrick captained and played football on the Verona football team for four years. He is a member of the Verona Athletic Club.

JUDGE CALLS Women Liars Judge Declares Gentler Sex Will Eventually Acquire Habit of Telling Truth.

PHILADELPHIA, March 26.—Judge James K. O'Connor is convinced that nearly all women who go into court to testify become liars before they leave the witness stand, even assuming they are of undoubted veracity before they are called upon to testify. "It is my experience," said Magistrate O'Connor, during the progress of a case the other afternoon, "that most women who come into court to testify depart absolute liars. Women will come before this judicial bench with pious expressions on their faces, place their hands on the Bible, swear to tell the whole truth and nothing but the truth, and then go right ahead and swear to things that other people know to be absolutely false. It is very easy for women to lie, especially when they are giving evidence in court. They do it day after day without hesitancy, and yet many of them would throw a fit if a decent, hard-working chap, who had taken a single glass of beer, got into a car, and sitting beside them, unconsciously detected his beer breath in their direction. Some day women will acquire the habit of telling the truth."

HATS OFF NOW IN LONDON THEATERS

LONDON, March 26.—The problem of the matinee hat, which has been agitating the minds of English theatrical managers for years, has now been practically solved, and in the simple American way. Several smart society women have set the fashion of removing their hats on talking their seats and all those women who want to be in the fashion and do not happen to have false curls sewed onto their hats, have followed suit. This new phase was very marked at two recent charity matinees. At one given at the St. James theater by George Alexander one or two well known society women removed their hats and put them in their laps soon after they had settled themselves in the stalls, and within three minutes hat pins were being ruthlessly pulled out all over the theater, with the result that 60 per cent of the women in the theater were bareheaded before the curtain rose. At another matinee at which Miss Muriel Wilson, the society beauty, appeared for the first time on a London stage, Mrs. Leopold de Rothschild very ostentatiously removed her hat as a gentle rebuke to the women who were obscuring the view of the stage with enormous picture hats. Here again the same thing occurred, and the majority of the women in the audience following like sheep the excellent example set by one of the king's oldest friends.

SOMNAMBULIST PUZZLES THE SCIENTISTS Girl, in Sleep, Plays Piano and Violin; Reads in Dark; Writes Highly Technical Essay on Music; Then Forgets All.

LONDON, March 26.—The particulars of an extraordinary case of somnambulism are communicated to the British Medical Journal by Dr. James Russell, assistant physician at the Birmingham Hospital. He says that a girl, 31 years old, who is a teacher of the typewriter and a student of music, entered the hospital to be cured of sleep-walking. While under observation there, she habitually left her bed after three or four hours' sleep and busied herself in various ways, including descending into the music room and playing the piano, tuning a violin and fitting new strings to it, and crocheting. Her most remarkable feat, however, were reading and writing in the dark. If ever there was a faint artificial light in the room she would avoid it and go to the darkest corner, where she would read various books, study the theory of harmony and write letters. One of her letters was addressed to her music teacher. It contained a short essay on "The Sonata Form," which was accurate in tense and construction. Another letter she wrote was in German. When she awoke she did not in the least remember writing or reading. An examination of her eyes did not reveal the reason for her being able to see in the dark. She has now left the hospital, her condition having improved, but she occasionally walks in her sleep.

MARRIES MAN SHE ACCUSED OF CRIMES

NEW YORK, March 26.—After being arrested here for embezzlement, forgery and breach of promise, and held in court, Joseph Haines of Shamokin, married Mrs. Rachel Vermillion, of Elmira, who brought the charges. Haines fell in love with Mrs. Vermillion while she was married. She procured a divorce so as to be able to marry Haines. Pending the marriage Mrs. Vermillion placed $300 in the possession of her prospective husband, when, she says, he disappeared. Haines has publicly announced that he will be responsible for no one's bills but his own. A PROOF. "Our neighbor, Mrs. Wisecore, who boasts that she doesn't believe in banks isn't poor at all. She has money to burn." "How did you find that out?" "I saw her today put away her savings in her dining-room stove."

MURDER MYSTERY PUZZLING STOCKTON

Laborer Found With His Skull Crushed in, Indicating There Was a Murder.

STOCKTON, March 26.—The body of an unknown man was found early this morning in a Western Pacific culvert, a mile south of town, shortly after 6 o'clock this morning, under circumstances indicating that murder had been committed. The skull had been crushed over the right eye from a blow with a blunt instrument. No trains had passed the point since 3:30 yesterday afternoon and the body was not there as late as 7 o'clock last night.

The man's purse was empty, though 70 cents in change was found in a pocket. The deceased was about 70 years old, plainly dressed, with a short beard.

A watch, a pair of spectacles and a comb were found, but nothing by which he could be readily identified.

The dead man was later identified as E. P. Whitman, a laborer of this city.

PROPRIETOR OF OLD HIGGINS HOUSE HELD

John Higgins, the man accused of issuing fictitious checks, was held to answer to the Superior Court by Police Judge Samuels this morning. His bonds were placed at $2500.

Higgins formerly owned the Higgins house on O'Farrell street in San Francisco and was well known in business circles across the bay before the fire. He spent all the insurance money that he received for the destruction of his hotel and later was thrown into debt by a succession of family troubles and the death of one member of his household.

MINING EXCHANGE TEMPORARILY SUSPENDED

Action Sustained Until Depression in Stocks and Bonds Disappears.

At a meeting of the Oakland Stock and Bond Exchange last evening, the operations of the institution were temporarily suspended with the understanding that, at the first possible moment there will be a rehabilitation of the organization, when the exchange will be placed on a basis which will give it a stability equal to any institution of the kind in the country.

Today a committee was appointed for the purpose of carrying out the plan of the members as outlined, the committee consisting of B. P. Miller, president of the exchange; M. J. Layman and Frank Bilger. These gentlemen have been foremost among the promoters of the organization. They are still devoted to the enterprise and have made up their minds that at the first possible opportunity they will again open the doors of the concern.

The period of suspension will not be long and will be reached when confidence shall have been restored to the stock and bond business throughout the country.

Pomona's Skipper Says He'll Assume Censure, if Any's to Be Given.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.—Captain Swanson of the wrecked steamer Pomona, taking the stand in the investigation held this morning by the government inspectors, announced that he was prepared to take all the blame for the disaster upon himself, provided there was any cause for censure.

During the hearing today, the master of the Pomona, Chief Mate Robert E. Carey, Chief Engineer Clements and Second Mate Hanna gave testimony, but owing to the desire of the inspectors to probe deeper into the cause which led to the loss of the vessel, the investigation will be continued until certain members of the crew can give their stories.

From the testimony given this morning it appears that Captain Swanson in bringing his boat too close to shore to escape the buffeting of the heavy sea, struck a sunken reef. The officers testified that the Pomona was about a mile and a half off shore when she grounded for the first time. Second Officer Hanna said that this was only his second trip to Eureka in the Pomona and that he was unfamiliar with the coast in the vicinity of Fort Ross.

Chief Mate Carey had made many trips up north, however, but testified that this was the closest he had even been to the shore in one of the coasting steamers.

The Chief Engineer declared that the engines and boilers were in excellent condition when the Pomona was wrecked and had nothing to do with the loss of the vessel.

There were some persons present who favored the division of the money in the treasury pro-rata among the members in good standing, but they remained silent when it was ascertained that a resolution to that effect had been introduced in the meeting of the governing board last Monday night and that it had been voted down with an emphasis which was not to be misunderstood.

Governing Board Appoints Committee.

In the appointment of the committee to the charge of the affairs of the exchange during its suspension, it was understood that appointees were to be selected by the president from the governing board.

Accordingly the names above referred to were chosen. This limitation was designed to prevent the placing on the committee of men who would leave nothing undone for the purpose of making the exchange absolutely a thing of the past.

This purpose was further frustrated by the adoption of resolutions providing simply that the body cease active operations instead of closing up its business, that the salary of the secretary cease at the end of this month and that all funds of the exchange shall begin to draw interest the first of April.

It developed after the meeting that there were several members of the exchange who did not receive the notice of the gathering until they had reached their homes last night. At the time of the receipt of the notices the action referred to above had been taken. Some of these members stated that they could not have attended a meeting at 6 o'clock, more especially when they had not heard of it until after 3 o'clock at night. They further declared that if they had been present they would have voted against the action taken, on the ground that it was illegal. Some of them threatened to contest the legality of the matter anyway.

Preparing Statement.

Regardless of the unanimous sentiment of the persons present last night that the action taken was according to law, a statement of the case in no wise course of preparation and this statement will be submitted as a matter of prudence by President Miller to a leading attorney for an opinion.

There were five life members in the exchange—President B. P. Miller, Senator G. R. Luken, Edward McGary, F. M. Smith and Dr. S. B. Wetherfield. Each of these gentlemen paid $500 for his membership. Each, however, has the greatest confidence in the rehabilitation of the organization.

AWARDS FINAL DECREE IN VAN HORN DIVORCE

Ross Van Horn and Mrs. Marian Van Horn, the hearing of whose divorce suit furnished sensational evidence, have been finally separated, Judge Ogden granting the final decree of divorce yesterday. Upon the request of the defense, a stay of execution for thirty days was granted, in which time it is likely that an appeal will be taken.

Van Horn was the principal of a San Rafael school and very prominent in social circles. A short time previous to the divorce suit Mrs. Van Horn and her family moved to Berkeley, where the children attended the university.

Mrs. Van Horn conducted a student boarding-house, and every week Van Horn visited his family. Upon one of these trips he claimed, he discovered evidence that his wife was accepting affections from some of her boarders.

After hearing the testimony in the case Judge Ogden awarded Van Horn an interlocutory decree. An appeal was taken to the State Supreme Court, which affirmed the ruling of the lower court.

Marian Van Horn, a daughter, was one of the principals in an automobile wreck about a year ago. At the time a machine in which she was riding with a party of university students crashed into a fence near Milpitas, killing one of the party.

FILIPINO IS JAILED ON MURDER CHARGE

Alleged Slayer of Chinese at Fair Oaks Captured Here.

Ben Josephs, alias Wilkins, a Filipino, 20 years of age, is under arrest at the city prison on a charge of having shot and killed a Chinese named Wong Ing Gm, at Fair Oaks, San Mateo county, on February 4. Josephs was seen this morning at Fourteenth street and Broadway by Wong Duck, a Chinese, who was a witness to the murder, and who has been on Josephs' trail. The Filipino was pointed out to Policeman Longnecker, who took him into custody. The San Mateo county officials have been notified of the arrest.

Josephs is alleged to have made his way to Oakland immediately after the murder. The Chinese Six Companies offered a reward of $500 for his arrest, and conviction and circulars containing his description were sent throughout the State. Wong Duck will be entitled to the reward provided Josephs is convicted.

The murder was the result of a quarrel in a gambling den during the Chinese New Year's celebration.

She waited until Fuller was brought in and then she dragged him off to the justice of the peace.

POLICE KILL THUG RUNNING AWAY IN A CAB

MAN HAD JUST HELD UP TWO LONE VICTIMS

Driverless Cab With Man's Body Runs About the Street for Several Hours.

CHICAGO, March 26.—James Kane was found dead in a cab in Eighteenth street and Calumet avenue early today with a bullet through his head. He is believed to have met his death from wounds inflicted by a policeman who tried to arrest him after he and two companions had beaten a cabman, stolen his cab and held up and robbed two pedestrians in the course of a wild dash through the streets of the north and west sides of the city.

Attack and Rob Three Men

Kane and his companions engaged Robert Campion soon after midnight at State and Madison streets to drive them in his cab to an address on the north side. At Rush and Ohio streets he was attacked and robbed and left unconscious in the basement entrance to a hotel. An hour later the three men, one of whom acted as driver, robbed and beat William Willard, 96 Dearborn avenue, at North Clark and Kinsie streets, and still later treated in a like manner, at West Monroe and Hilsted streets, George Morris. The policeman who fired the fatal shot ordered a halt as they drove furiously through Halsted street, near Archer avenue, and opened fire in response to shots with which the men answered his command.

The jaded horses and the partially wrecked cab, with the dead body of Kane within, was found by the police at daybreak. Kane's companions escaped.

Kane, who was 18 years old, has a police record.

DUKE FIGHTS SUIT BROUGHT BY TAILOR

Summons Served on Wrong Man—The Trials of Miss Shonts' Husband.

NEW YORK, March 26.—Judge Conlon of the city court has under consideration a motion in a suit of James Cavanaugh, a tailor of London and Paris, against the Duke de Chalmers, who recently married Miss Theodora Shonts, daughter of Theodore P. Shonts.

The suit is to recover $1345 alleged to be due for clothes furnished by the tailor to the duke in 1901. The motion is to set aside the alleged service of the summons in the case.

The plaintiff's attorney has filed affidavits to the effect that the complaint was served on the duke in New York a few days before his marriage, but the duke's attorneys have produced counter affidavits to the effect that a mistake was made and that the summons was in fact served on Baron de Conde, a friend of the duke, who came to America to attend the marriage.

KANSAS CITY BANK IS TO OPEN DOORS MONDAY

Big Syndicate Has Produced $2,870,000 in Cash.

KANSAS CITY, March 26.—All the requirements laid down by the Comptroller of the Currency for the re-opening of the National Bank of Commerce of this city were complied with when Receiver George T. Cutts today received $2,870,000 in cash from a syndicate which took over all the slow paper of the bank and all the assets termed "bad" by the government officials.

The bank will open next Monday with 47 per cent of its deposits in its vaults and with Comptroller Ridgely as its president.

'DRIFTED AROUND CAPE HORN,' SAYS THIS SAN FRANCISCO MAN

NEW YORK, March 26.—Her captain telling a tale of having drifted all the way around Cape Horn from San Francisco, the American full rigged ship William F. Frye, made this port yesterday. The Frye, says her skipper, never shipped a drop of water until four days ago when she ran into a smart northeaster off Cape Henry. Otherwise the voyage was a succession of light and baffling winds and dead calms.

"It's the first time in my sixty odd voyages around Cape Horn that I ever saw such weather," said Captain Murphy. His mate, Herman E. Smith of Seattle backed up the captain's story of the placid voyage by exhibition of the mute but veracious evidence of the ship's log book.

DUKE D' ABRUZZI NOW ADMITS ENGAGEMENT

MISS KATHERINE ELKINS.

King of Italy, It Is Said, Has Given His Royal Assent.

NEW YORK, March 26.—A wireless dispatch from the Lusia says that the Duke D'Abuzzi has acknowledged that a tentative engagement exists between himself and the daughter of Senator Elkins.

ROME, March 26.—A high and important personage today gave full confirmation to the statement that the Duke D'Abuzzi in the beginning of January asked permission of the king to marry Miss Katherine Elkins.

At first the king brought forward some objections, but in the end he consented on condition that they avoid complications in regard to any breach of court etiquette and that the marriage should be celebrated outside of Italy, to which the duke consented. Under the law, in order that the marriage might enter the rank of princess on the bride, it would be necessary for the presidents of the Chamber of Deputies and Senate to be present at the ceremony. The presidents would not have to attend in person, but could appoint delegates or proxies to represent them.

The marriage will not take place until the fall.

MASTER PLUMBERS' ANOTHER JURY CONVEKE HERE MAY 12

Large Body of Delegates and Wives Will Stay Five Days.

The Master Plumbers' Association of California will assemble in convention in this city Tuesday, May 12, and remain five days. They will come 250 strong and nearly all of them will be accompanied by their wives.

This is one of the strongest and most successful organizations in the State. While there is a great deal of business transacted at the annual conventions the members always find time to devote to pleasure and are liberal in the expenditure of money in securing what they desire.

This fact is known to the local members of the organization and although the convention is several weeks away the Oakland master plumbers are leaving nothing undone for the purpose of enabling their guests to go away with the feeling that Oakland is one of the most hospitable and beautiful cities in the country.

The sessions will be held in Maple Hall, Fourteenth and Webster streets. The headquarters of the association will be at the Hotel St. Mark.

Sure of a Good Time.

Every night of the stay of the guests there will be diversions for them and their women. Among the pleasure features will be theater parties, automobile rides through the surrounding country, a hop on an exclusive scale, a steamer ride on the bay and a night at the varied attractions at Idora Park.

Oakland is honored in being the residence of the State president of the organization, Captain Daniel Crowley, who has been engaged in the plumbing business for many years. There are also resident here two members of the State executive board, John Eustace and George Stoddard.

FIGHTS WITH RAZOR ON BARBARY COAST

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.—Following a dispute over the payment of some money, Joseph Mano, a laborer, attempted to assault John Crowley of 415 Prager street at 2 o'clock this morning with a razor, and but for the timely interference of Policemen Cameron and Manion, disastrous consequences might have resulted.

USED EXPLOSIVES ON BANK SAFE

Blew Out Front of Building but Did Not Secure Any Booty.

COFFEYVILLE, Kansas, March 26.—An attempt was made to rob the State Bank at Earlton, near here, last night. No money was secured. The safe was located in the front of the building and the charge of nitro glycerine used by the robbers was so heavy that it blew the entire front of the building into the street. Frightened, the robbers fled. A posse is in pursuit.

Bryan Men Rule Iowa Convention

CEDAR RAPIDS, March 26.—The Iowa Democratic State convention, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the national convention in Denver, convened at 10:30 o'clock.

Charles R. Porter was selected as temporary chairman and called the convention to order. The caucuses held at 9 o'clock developed some spirited contests, but the Bryan men were clearly in the majority. The fight against Charles Miller, led by George F. Rinschert of Des Moines, may result in changing the meeting place of the next State convention from Sioux City to Des Moines.

ALAMEDA, March 26.—April 1 has been selected by Miss Rae Jeannette Fowler as the day upon which she will become the bride of George Jayvatt Hagy. Both bride and bridegroom want their many friends to understand that although their marriage is to be celebrated on All Fools' day it will be no joking matter. Miss Jeannette is a former classmate of Miss Fowler's in the Alameda High School, will be maid of honor and Arthur Barber of Fruitvale, a brother-in-law of the bride, is to be the best man. Chaplain W. H. Scott, U. S. A., retired, will perform the marriage ceremony, which is to take place at 8:30 p. m. at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Fowler, 2244 Santa Clara avenue.

MUST ADMIT IMMUNITY OR ACCUSE PASTORS OF PERJURY

Prosecution Thought to Be Seeking Delay

(Special to The Tribune.)
SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.—The finding of fresh indictments against Calhoun, Ford and Ruef, and the setting of the Parkside cases and the bribery charge against Ford for trial next week are all taken as indications that the prosecution intends to get an indefinite postponement of the proceedings now pending before Judge Lawlor in connection with the effort being made by Ruef to be placed where he was before he was granted an immunity contract and before he was deprived of certain rights which he claims were taken from him unjustly. According to program, Judge Lawlor will decide this afternoon on the merits of Ruef's contention, the evidence of which has been entirely submitted by affidavits. If he allows the oral examination of numerous witnesses, the decision may be postponed for some time. But on the other hand, if it is his intention to decide today, he is placed in a very peculiar position.

HUMAN BILLBOARD WARNS ALL RATS TO BEWARE

ALAMEDA, March 26.—Imagining that he was a human poison notice, Robert McCulley last night decorated himself with card signs, some of which read, "Look out, poison for rats set here," "Beware of rat biscuit," "For rats only," "Caution: Keep children away from places where rat poison is set out," "Down with the rats," "Sit 'em, Fido." When McCulley was taken to the police station and hooked he resembled an animated billboard and declared he was working for the board of health and for the extermination of all rodents. The signs were removed and he was assigned to a cell for a rest. After a few hours McCulley was released on $6 bail. This he forfeited by failing to appear in court this morning.

NOT ANARCHIST; MERELY JOKER

Anti-Liquor Republican Signed Himself as "Red," but He Isn't.

Benjamin Goffrey Ellingwood, who subscribed himself "anarchist" in an affidavit of registration filed yesterday with the County Clerk, declares today that he is not an anarchist. "As to this affair," he says in explanation, "I have only to say that I did not Mr. Warren. I would not answer the question, 'With which party do you intend to affiliate?' as I considered it was nobody's business. He suggested that I put the word 'Prohibitionist' in to fill up, but instead I wrote the word 'Anarchist.' I have years ago voted the Prohibition ticket and since the Republican party got my vote, but as to what ticket I will vote at the coming election I have nothing to say except that it will not be the Anarchist, as I am a free American citizen, born and reared in this State, and if anything further is wanted in regard to my past history I will gladly refer to good Republicans and Democrats well up in business circles."

DETECTIVE IS BACK WITHOUT PRISONER

Captain of Detectives Peterson returned from Portland this morning where he went a week ago after a Chinese woman, Sul Ling, wanted in Oakland on a charge of stealing $400 from Hong King, a Chinese merchant. Peterson was unable to get the prisoner, owing to the fact that she is in the custody of the federal officials pending deportation. Captain Peterson said that steps had been taken to have the federal officials order that she may be brought here for trial on the larceny charge. Captain Peterson will return to Portland provided this action is taken.

READ GOOD NEWS ON WALL OF SHACK

Newspaper Tells Farm Hand of the Windfall of Fortune in Shape of Legacy.

CHICAGO, March 26.—A dispatch to the Record-Herald from Tacoma, Wash., says: To have saved the life of a fellow emigrant in a wreck in 1873 and thirty-five years later to have read in a newspaper plastered upon the wall of a homestead shack an advertisement which led to his becoming the recipient of a fortune of $35,000 is the experience of Peter Anderson, a farmhand, who resides near White Bluffs, Wash. Anderson yesterday received a check for $35,000 to enable him to proceed to New York to carry out the final legal formalities necessary in the transfer of the fortune. His friend was Peter Knudsen, who made $1,000,000 in the glove business in New Jersey.

WHAT IS POWER

Nature supplies force. Wind turns the wind-mill. The brook turns the water-wheel. Coal runs the engine and food runs the man. Some things contain little force, some things much.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

Nature put the power there. It is a wonderful fish-product. This is not only a matter of nourishment but of new vigor and activity in the tissues.

All Bottlers: 50c. and $1.00.

introduce many novel features, so that the invited guests will not forget the hospitality of Liberty Lodge anniversary events.

After the regular business had been transacted the camp was entertained by a new member, Neighbor Bradford, who played several selections upon the piano.

Then Neighbor Trow of Oakland Camp and Enders of Athens Camp rendered a few vocal selections.

It was a merry meeting, giving a suggestion of treats in store for the camp.

Sunday evening, April 12, will be Woodman evening at the Fourth Congregational Church, Thirty-sixth and Grove streets. After the meeting the "Yellow" side of the campaign entered, and Captain Courtney George Troth, ably assisted by Court Lady Ruth Myers, put on several novel features. The hall was prettily decorated with yellow streamers, and at one end of the hall was a orange tree, with real oranges.

The archery contest was amusing. The bows and arrows were provided by Captain Troth. The first prize was carried off by Courtney Andrews, and the "nooby" prize by Courtney Blake. A bean supper was served. Captain Troth responded to a toast, followed by Court Lady Naimith, captain of the "Reds."

The Pure Food Law. Secretary Wilson says: "One of the objects of the law is to inform the consumer of the presence of certain harmful drugs in medicines." The law requires that the amount of chloroform, opium, morphine and other habit forming drugs be stated on the label of each bottle. The manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy have always claimed that their remedy did not contain any of these drugs and the truth of this claim is now fully proven, as no mention of them is made on the label. This remedy is not one of the safest, but one of the best in use for coughs and colds. Its value has been proven beyond question during the many years it has been in general use. It is sold by Osgood Drug Stores, Seventh and Broadway and Twelfth and Washington sts.

DE SAGAN ADMITS SUIT FOR HAND OF MME. GOULD

Relatives Still Oppose Woman's Wedding

NEW YORK, March 26.—Prince Helie de Sagan, avowed suitor for the hand of Mme. Anna Gould is today, having dropped all attempted disguises and the prosaic names of W. H. Thompson and Bertrand Dufresne.

The prince has practically confirmed the statement that he is here to urge his suit for the hand of Mme. Gould, the divorced wife of his cousin, Count Boni de Castellane. An honorable Frenchman cannot tell of his own heart affairs, he declared, and he awaits the pleasure of the woman.

The prince did not see Mme. Gould yesterday nor did he call at the residence of Miss Helen Gould, where the woman he hopes to make his wife is a guest.

"I have only been in America officially since a few minutes before 1 o'clock this afternoon," he said. "I must not rush things. It is likely that I will call at Miss Gould's residence tomorrow and formally leave cards."

Dinner Bar's Meeting.
 Mme. Gould and the Prince would likely have met last night had she not been engaged to dine with Mr. and Mrs. Elbridge T. Gerry.

The attitude of the Gould family toward the suit of the Prince de Sagan remains unchanged. George Gould is said to be furious over the publicity that has followed the discovery that the prince had secretly followed his sister to New York.

So far Gould has made absolutely no statement. This is said to be largely due to the fact that Mme. Gould is firm in standing by the prince. She points out that he is the only one of her former husband's family who stood by her through the troublesome divorce period in France. As Gould cannot truthfully deny the probability of an early engagement and marriage, he said nothing.

Prince Friendly to All.

As for the prince, he is the friend of all the world. Even the mention of his cousin, Count Boni, did not arouse him. "Is Mr. George Gould opposed to you?" he asked after he had reached his suite in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel.

"I have met Mr. Gould but once," he said. "I do not know what he could have against me."

"Do you believe that he stands in the way?"

"In the way of what?" returned the prince. "I have not admitted there was anything he could be in the way of."

Mme. Gould would not admit that she was engaged to Prince Helie and intimated that that was her affair.

"Is it true that the prince would not be welcome in Miss Helen Gould's home?" she was asked.

"No, no," she exclaimed emphatically. "The prince is my good friend. He will be most welcome."

Stanford Crew Is Disbanded

STANFORD, March 26.—The faculty at Stanford has refused to reinstate Gay of Redlands, the captain of the varsity crew who was suspended during the recent disturbances at the university. The action on the part of the college management has been resented by the rest of the athletes and the crew has disbanded in a body. This state of affairs will in all probability necessitate the calling off of the Stanford, Washington and California regatta scheduled for next month.

Freshman Regatta Has Been Called Off

Owing to the fact that the freshman rowers were required to go through a strength test at the University of California yesterday afternoon, the race between the two picked crews on the estuary was postponed. Coach Garnett stated that the event will be pulled off some day during the week.

California Men to Journey Southward

The University of California track team will leave on the Owl for Los Angeles tonight, where they are to meet the University of Southern California in a track meet on Saturday. Sixteen men, besides Manager Shingle, will make the trip.

Accused of Murder; Bakersfield.—"Shorty" Warren, the teamster who shot and killed Henry T. Wright of Los Angeles in Johannesburg last fall, was acquitted of the murder charge last night after the jury had been out but a short time.

Mother Mary Dead.—Omaha: Mother Mary of Mount Carmel, Mother Superior of the Good Shepherd Convent, died last night of consumption. Her name was Mary Lucile Powers before entering the order.

IN THE STATE

Banks to Consolidate. Los Angeles.—Articles of incorporation of the Park Bank of Los Angeles were filed yesterday, paying the way for a merger of the Central Trust Company and the Dollar Savings Bank & Trust Company. The bank will do a purely banking business, with no trust department.

Would Entertain Torpedo Fleet. Stockton.—Preparations are being made to invite the torpedo flotilla of the big fleet that will visit San Francisco in May to make a trip to Stockton. The journey up the San Joaquin river could easily be made by those boats and launches from Admiral Evans' fleet at this season of the year, as the river is very deep then, due to the melting snows.

Home for Aged People. Los Angeles.—The Home for the Aged of the Little Sisters of the Poor, which was donated to that order by E. J. Le Breton of San Francisco, was dedicated yesterday by Bishop Conroy. The home is one of the biggest Southern California charitable institutions and represents an outlay by Le Breton of about $350,000.

Burned by an Explosion. Yreka.—H. Patterson, ex-supervisor and proprietor of the Edgewood Hotel, at Edgewood, was severely burned yesterday at his hotel by the explosion of an acetylene gas tank used to supply the hotel with light.

Felt Earthquake Shocks. Whittier.—Three shocks of earthquake in rapid succession were felt here yesterday morning beginning at 2:30 o'clock. The second shock was the heaviest and disturbed things somewhat, but no damage was done.

Nome Pioneer Dies. Los Angeles.—Richard Carson, one of the pioneers of Nome, died at the Emergency Hospital yesterday of tuberculosis, contracted from exposure in the north. Although at one time the possessor of more than $1,000,000, Carson died a pauper.

Notes Physician Dies. Los Angeles.—Dr. Franklin W. Hays, who was physician to the late President Harrison, died yesterday at the California Hospital of throat trouble.

SAN FRANCISCO NOTES

Lives in Cemetery Vault.—John J. Jenette, a vagrant, was found in a vault at Mount Calvary Cemetery on Tuesday and was placed under arrest. He told Police Judge Weller that he had made the vault his home since January last, when he was discharged from the county jail. He was sentenced to serve sixty days more.

New Complaint Filed.—The case of Barton Pittman, promoter, banker and incorporator of companies, huge speculation, charged with felony embezzlement on complaint of John M. Ober, a railroad man of Carson City, Nevada, was called for preliminary hearing in Police Judge Weller's court yesterday. As there was a technical error in the original complaint a new complaint was sworn to by Ober and Pittman again arraigned.

Supervisors to Visit Site.—The members of the Board of Supervisors will go down to San Jose in city automobiles on Friday, and after spending the night at the Vendome Hotel will make an early morning start for an all-day trip to the Spring Valley Company's Calaveras plant.

Secures Loan from City.—The first loan of city money under the newly approved charter provision was made yesterday by Treasurer McDougald. The Merchants' National Bank secured $5,000 in gold, for which it will pay 2 per cent interest, upon which it deposited national and state bonds as security.

To Inspect Street Work.—Assistant City Engineer Price and Superintendent Broderick began yesterday an inspection of the street work done for the Home Telephone Company, complaints against which have been numerous to the department. By Saturday they expect to make a report to the Board of Public Works.

Ad Manager Passes Away. Los Angeles.—Isaac F. Guiltz, for thirty years connected with the A. N. Kellogg Newspaper Agency, died at the home of his nephew, George F. Guiltz, here yesterday, aged 48 years. For the last three years he had resided in Los Angeles, where he came here from Kansas City, where he was manager of that branch of the Kellogg concern.

Bismarck

HOW many living men can squarely stand up and honestly compare themselves as the equal or superior (in any way whatsoever) to the great Iron Chancellor of the Hohenzollern's, who made Goethe's dream of Germanic unity a realistic drama of "iron and of blood?"

How many dare declare, "I have greater brain power than he?"—"I have a stronger body?"—"I am healthier?"—"I have a saner knowledge?"—"I am more successful?" or "I have more force of character?"

Bismarck, during his marvelous career, outwitted the most celebrated statesmen of his time; terrified the mightiest kings and emperors; overthrew and conquered three armed nations; and ruled over the empire he created with enlightened and practical wisdom for nearly half a century, dying at the ripe old age of 89, famous throughout the world as the "Greatest of the Germans."

Now, upon what nutriment was this colossus fed that he grew so mighty; what put the iron into his blood? This we know—that like all Germans he believed in good eating and drinking, hence the juices of malt and hops were never absent from his table.

Authority—any biography of Bismarck.
 "A pot of good double beer, neighbor, drink and fear not,"—Henry VI.—Act 2.
